

Aaliyah Brown is 7x NCAA All-American, SEC 100m champion, and World Championship Gold Medalist. She is a Chicago Native graduating from Lincoln Way East Highschool as Illinois's #1 recruit. Aaliyah attend Texas A&M University and graduated with a Bachelor's degree. After graduating, Brown made her US Team and represented competing in the 4x100 meter relay and won a gold medal in London. Brown is happy and grateful to have competed at such a high level for so long starting as a young child in USATF at AAU to a young woman to living our her dreams and winning a gold medal at one of the most prestigious track and field competitions in the world. Brown is now sprint coach giving back to young athletes who want to be great !